15th Sunday of Ordinary Time: Become as little children, Jesus declares. A child can wonder at the mystery of a seed. A child can marvel at the power of a tiny, hard-cased, dried-up kernel to produce extraordinary fruit. That's the amazement Jesus offers us today – amazement at how much fruit the word of God can bear when it is welcomed into our hearts and takes root in our lives. This is today's good news, even as we admit all the obstacles that threaten to limit the harvest. Those who take time to tune in to God's good word will find their lives and their world transformed.
